

New Doha International Airport Emiri Terminal Parking Structure & Mosque

Client

Qatar Building Engineering Company

Scope of Work

Conceptual design

Detailed design

Location

Doha, Qatar

Types of Activities

Structural

New Doha International Airport (NDIA) is undergoing an expansion plan to raise passenger capacity to 24 million passengers per year by constructing the Emiri Terminal.

The project includes Emiri Terminal associated facilities, passenger terminal parking structure, Emiri gate, VIP check point, roads and mosque, with all associated systems of buildings service, fire safety and security, external lighting, roads and parking areas.

